

I use my XM radio all the time. I travel and find the weather and traffic channel to be a God send if you are not familiar with the area. Also in my own area I can turn the this station and get instant feedback. I would be very unhappy to lose this I would give up other options before I would give up my XM radio. I even want my wife to update her car so she can have XM radio. It's the greatest.